RVM Takes First Place as Best End-to-End eDiscovery Provider

NEW YORK, December 16, 2015 – The New Jersey Law Journal has announced that RVM Enterprises, Inc., a leader in the eDiscovery industry, has been recognized as a top service provider in four categories across its service offerings, garnering three first place rankings, including Best End-to-End eDiscovery Provider.

RVM took first place as the Best End-to-End eDiscovery Provider, by the 2015 New Jersey Law Journal Reader Rankings. RVM was selected as a result of votes cast by approximately 2000 legal professionals who read the New Jersey Law Journal. RVM was one of over 500 firms in on the official ballot. Voters were also given the option of writing in any firms not seen listed; adding another 300 to the list of contestants.

"We are thrilled to be recognized in four categories across the full range of RVM's services. RVM is honored to have ranked first in three of those categories, including Best End-to-End eDiscovery, Best Predictive Coding Solution and Best Information Governance Solution," said Vinnie Brunetti, Chief Executive Officer of RVM Enterprises, Inc.  "I am extremely proud that our clients, the readers of the New Jersey Law Journal, have bestowed RVM with the honor of being named Best End-to-End eDiscovery Provider."

RVM recently widened its US presence to cover the nation by opening its Los Angeles office complete with a forensics lab, technical personnel, project management, and an attorney document review center. RVM also recently expanded its presence in Cleveland to better serve the growing demands of its clients with another state-of-the-art Document Review Center.

RVM's extraordinary growth has been recognized by many organizations. It has been named the Best End-to-End eDiscovery Service Provider by the New York Law Journal. RVM was also distinguished for the fifth consecutive time on the Inc. 5000 honor roll, an exclusive ranking of the nation's fastest growing private companies.
