RVM Expands Corporate Headquarters to Jersey City, NJ

NEW YORK, November 8, 2016 – RVM Enterprises, Inc., a leader in providing advanced eDiscovery technical solutions to corporations and law firms, has announced plans to expand its corporate headquarters from 40 Rector Street in New York City to Jersey City, NJ in the spring of 2017. The opening of the Jersey City office in the Newport Tower at 525 Washington Blvd in Jersey City's Waterfront section signals another milestone in the company's growth. The Waterfront section of Jersey City, less than five miles from RVM's current location, has become a natural extension of Manhattan's business community and the home of many corporate headquarters in the region. While RVM corporate functions will be centered in Jersey City, the company will maintain its New York presence including a state-of-the-art Managed Document Review Center.

Expansion is not new to RVM. Earlier this year, RVM opened its London office and in 2015, RVM expanded its Managed Review Center in Cleveland. With its long history of serving a diverse corporate clientele with expansive global operations and eDiscovery demands, RVM remains dedicated to innovation to address the ever-changing business models in today's legal and corporate environments.

"RVM's growth is a continuing testament to our commitment to customer service, innovative solutions, and client satisfaction. We look forward to our expansion to New Jersey and the opportunity it gives us to broaden our outreach to the legal community." said Vinnie Brunetti, CEO of RVM Enterprises, Inc.
